Three Deaths Yesterday.

There were three deaths recorded yesterday by the secretary of the board of health.

Joe Kasa, Jr., aged 2 months, according to the certificate of Dr. C. L. Garvin, died of gastritis stomitis and malnutrition.

S. Machida, a Japanese, aged 22 years, died at the Japanese hospital at Palama of acute beriberi. Dr. S. Kobayashi was the attending physician.

F. F. Madeira, aged 48 years, of Portuguese nationality, and a native of the Island of Madeira, died at his home on Kinau street, between Alapai and Miller, of pleurisy. He was attended by Dr. T. Mitamura.

"Star Spangled Banner."

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., general agents for Territory of Hawaii.

ENDOWMENT BOND.

Do you know that an Endowment Bond in the Provident Savings Life Insurance Society combines protection and investment, and at the end of twenty years the principal sum would be paid to you in cash, with accumulated profits, and in event of death during the premium paying term, a cash addition to the principal sum assured, representing a return of from thirty to ninety per cent of the total premiums paid would be included in the amount then due and payable to your beneficiary? I. R. Burns, Resident Manager, New Magoon building.

We'd be content from birth
Our course through life to run
If we only had the earth,
And a mortgage on the sun.

But we'd live in total bliss
And free from all that mars
If we owned the Solar Sys—
Tem and a Kulsana in the Stars.

And all we want besides is a fair share of your patronage.

AN IMMENSE STOCK

Of Toys of All Descriptions at L. B. Kerr's & Co.

L. B. Kerr & Company have imported a large stock of toys for the holiday trade. This firm has always provided a good assortment of toys for Christmas shoppers, but the stock this year is greater and better than ever. A force of men has been engaged all day in arranging the display, which will be open to the public on Monday morning.

Few people are aware of the strides that have been made in mechanical toys. At Kerr's one is amazed to see bears walk, "niggers" dance, talking dogs and other "freakish" toys. There is a big supply of wagons, drums, games, dolls and other goods. The stock is new and should be seen by holiday buyers.

Kinau Passengers.

Among the arrivals in the Kinau yesterday from Hawaii and Maui ports were Postmaster J. M. Oat, D. H. Hitchcock, Herbert B. Gehr and child, Mrs. G. W. Pary, L. F. LeBlond, A. Horner, H. L. Holstein, Paul Jarrett, Dr. Raymond, R. W. Shingle, C. P. Grimwood, Capt. L. Ahlborn, wife and child.

The Misses Campbell Entertain.

A large number of the friends of the Misses Abbie and Alice Campbell were entertained last evening by these charming young women as hostesses at a pot supper at their Waikiki home. After partaking of the luncheon the guests spent the evening in dancing until such a late hour that it was near enough to Sunday to quit. The soft, melodious tones of the Quintet club floated in the balmy air. A very happy evening was the unanimous verdict.

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian Historical Society will be held on Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. After the reading of reports and election of officers, etc., a paper on the history of the Honolulu Fort will be read by Dr. N. B. Emerson.

Children's Photographs

Perhaps the most trying part of the photographic operator's life is the handling of children, yet Miss Haskins, with infinite skill, seems to find no difficulty in the matter.

It is surprising the variety of poses the little ones are led into by her skillful handling, all so natural and delightful. Miss Haskins has a style of her own and her efforts are highly appreciated by those who are competent to judge.

King Bros. are to be congratulated on having secured her services in their new enterprise.
